Training Lead/Consultant:

Alteristic seeks a seasoned, dynamic and charismatic public speaker with demonstrated leadership skills to join our training team. We are a high-growth, mission-driven organization dedicated to the dramatic reduction of power-based personal violence. The Training Lead/Consultant will provide high level consultation and training on research-informed, data driven prevention strategies for government departments, agencies, affiliated entities, corporations, and other organizations. The ideal candidate will have exemplary interpersonal and public speaking skills, initiative, and will be highly collaborative. This job requires up to 50% travel. This position may have the option to work remotely from anywhere in the US, depending on individual job responsibilities.

We offer a competitive salary commensurate with education and experience, and our benefits package includes health, dental and vision insurance, life insurance, generous leave, and retirement.

Job Duties:

- Provide trainings and consultations to government departments, agencies, affiliated entities, corporations, and other organizations on evidence based violence prevention strategies.
- Lead in training and adaptation of content for diverse departments, agencies and organizations.
- Work with a team to develop effective prevention recommendations and trainings.
- Present recommendations and conduct trainings to government departments, agencies, other entities, corporations, and organizations.
- Provide training and technical assistance in the domains of power-based personal violence prevention (sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking, bullying, child abuse, and elder abuse) and effective community mobilization including but not limited to the Green Dot Violence Prevention strategy.
- Serve as a point of contact for technical assistance related to prevention strategies. This includes providing face to face, telephone, and web-based consultations regarding effective prevention and supporting clients through the process of implementing prevention strategies.
- Contribute as a team member to prevention program curriculum development for government departments, agencies, affiliated entities, and other organizations.
• Master new and existing training programs and stay abreast of key developments in the field.
• Other duties as assigned
