

Postdoctoral Research and Program Development Fellow:

Alteristic seeks a Postdoctoral Research and Program Development Fellow to research and develop interpersonal violence and harassment prevention solutions, produce high level strategic documents, conceptualize and develop evidence-informed prevention approaches, and translate research into actionable programmatic solutions. Will work under the supervision and direction of Dr Dorothy Edwards.

Alteristic is a high-growth, mission-driven organization dedicated to the dramatic reduction of sexual assault, harassment, domestic violence, stalking and other forms of interpersonal violence and aggression.

Position will be based in Springfield, Virginia and may require up to 25% travel.

Job Duties:

- Develop sexual assault and harassment prevention programs and strategy documents with national, international, and state-wide scopes.
- Consume peer reviewed literature, synthesize and use to inform proposal, high level strategy documents, curriculum, and white paper development and writing.
- Write persuasive proposals for projects.
- Engage in high-level, strategic consultations with clients including the U.S. Department of Justice, U.S. Military, other government departments, state governments, businesses and corporations, international NGOs, colleges and universities, and community-based organizations.
- Interface with clients and specialized constituencies to develop an in depth understanding of client objectives and define solutions to meet their requirements.
- Develop research informed and compelling approaches and solutions to address client needs.
- Adapt existing program materials and curriculum to meet client needs.
- Present developed programs to clients, clearly communicating the research-basis of all programmatic decisions and the vision of measurable reduction of sexual assault, harassment and other forms of interpersonal violence and aggression.
- Regularly interact with clients to keep them abreast of project progress.
- Write and review interim and final reports.

7955 Cameron Brown Court
Springfield, Virginia 22153
alteristic.org
571.319.0354

Strength of hope.
Power of action.

- Create white papers and presentations for publication, outside meetings and conferences to inform the field.

Employment Requirements:

- Ph.D. required preferably in public health, psychology, women's and gender studies or related field.
- Academic work in prevention and/or specifically interpersonal violence preferred.
- Experience with high level academic and/or curricular writing required.
- Must be interpersonally strong.
- Must possess impeccable writing skills.

How To Apply:

Interested candidates should submit a resume, letter of interest, and a writing sample to applicants@alteristic.org. Please put Postdoctoral Research and Program Development Fellow in the subject line. Apply as soon as possible as resumes are evaluated and interviews scheduled as applications are received.

Alteristic values and respects the diverse viewpoints and experiences and individual differences of all people. Alteristic is an equal opportunity employer and encourages all interested job seekers to apply.

ABOUT ALTERISTIC:

Alteristic is a non-profit organization that tackles societal issues at local, national, and global levels. Alteristic provides comprehensive prevention education, consultation, and training that addresses sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, stalking, harassment, suicide and other issues. Committed to optimizing and activating inherent human good, Alteristic equips and mobilizes communities to create social norms that ensure safety, respect, and the opportunity to thrive for all people. Rigorously evaluated and shown to move the needle, Alteristic was founded on the principles of the widely disseminated Green Dot violence prevention strategy.

Alteristic works with domestic and international communities, educational institutions, government entities, and corporations to amplify the actions of individuals toward transformational social change.

7955 Cameron Brown Court
Springfield, Virginia 22153
alteristic.org
571.319.0354

Strength of hope.
Power of action.